Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 18 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dull and unsettled start for Thursday. Turning drier, brighter later.

Today:
An unsettled overcast start to day with showers or longer spells of rain and hill snow, perhaps to lower levels briefly in northwest. Some brighter conditions developing in south and east, though still a few showers. Windy.

Tonight:
Showers dying out with some clear spells for a time. However cloud and rain will return in the late in the night with strengthening southerly winds.

Friday:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain, heavier and more persistent across the Southwest and Southern Highlands, lighter in sheltered central and eastern areas. Mild and windy.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Bright start on Saturday then rain later. Sunny spells and a few showers on Sunday and Monday. It will be windy at times.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.